General Notice

CAESAR'S REGISTRATION AS EMPLOYER ORGANISATION CANCELLED BY REGISTRAR OF LABOUR RELATIONS

The Registrar of Labour Relations at the Department of Labour has cancelled the registration of the Consolidated Association of Employers of South Africa (CAESAR) as an employer's organisation. The deregistration of CAESAR was published in Government Gazette No. 32712 dated 20 November 2009.

As a result CAESAR is no longer a party to the Metal and Engineering Industries Bargaining Council.

CAESAR has lodged an appeal at the Labour Court against the deregistration.

In terms of the Labour Relations Act, the right of CAESAR to represent its members in a bargaining council, to attend council committee meetings and to represent its members at dispute resolution hearings have been suspended pending the outcome of the appeal.

The payment of the collective bargaining levy to the MEIBC by CAESAR members will be deferred until the Labour Court decision has been received.

Yours faithfully

Alistair Smith
Chief Executive Officer
